

CORPORATE FASHION

ABOUT HECHTER

Daniel Hechter's international career began in Paris in 1962. His aim at the time was to stand for diversity in fashion. His fashion should be accessible to everyone and at the same time timeless.

It was important to him that his creations were comfortable and made with the highest precision. Even today, these values are still reflected in the Hechter Paris collections, which are very much appreciated by many customers.

As a globally renowned brand, we are constantly on the lookout for new innovations and technologies to meet our and our customers' high demands on a daily basis.

CASUAL

RELAXED BUSINESS WEAR

Our casual collection is designed for maximum comfort and can be worn with style in a business environment. High-quality fabrics guarantee the maximum feel-good factor.

A wide selection of models and colours can be combined in style, helping to create a sophisticated yet casual look.

VALUES AND PRINCIPLES

Sustainable and responsible actions are an active part of our daily work. Transparency in the supply chain is just as important to us as the careful use of resources.

With membership in amfori BSCI, we are committed to improving working conditions along our international supply chains. Good working conditions, respect for human rights and compliance with relevant international and local laws are our top priorities.

For this purpose, we use amfori BSCI as an association of more than 2,400 companies worldwide, including more than 800 from Germany alone. amfori BSCI is based on training and social audits and is oriented towards development policy. We recognise the amfori BSCI Code of Conduct as the foundation of our actions. This is based on the recognised guidelines and conventions of the International Labour Organisation, the UN declarations and the UN guiding principles for business and human rights and corresponding OECD guidelines.
